Post Communion Prayer

God of all grace,
your Son Jesus Christ fed the hungry with the bread of his life
and the word of his kingdom:
renew your people with your
heavenly grace,
and in all our weakness sustain us
by your true and living bread;
who is alive and reigns,
now and for ever.
Amen.

Collect

Blessed Lord,
who caused all holy Scriptures to be written for our learning:
help us so to hear them,
to read, mark, learn and inwardly
digest them that,
through patience, and the comfort of
your holy word,
we may embrace and for ever hold
fast the hope of everlasting life, which you have given us in our Saviour Jesus Christ, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever.
Amen.

Job 42:1-6, 10-end

Then Job answered the Lord: ²'I know that you can do all things, and that no purpose of yours can be thwarted.

³ "Who is this that hides counsel without knowledge?"

Therefore I have uttered what I did not understand, things too wonderful for me, which I did not know.

⁴ "Hear, and I will speak;

I will question you, and you declare to me."

⁵ I had heard of you by the hearing of the ear,

but now my eye sees you;

⁶ therefore I despise myself,

and repent in dust and ashes.'

¹⁰ And the LORD restored the fortunes of Job when he had prayed for his friends; and the LORD gave Job twice as much as he had before. ¹¹ Then there came to him all his brothers and sisters and all who had known him before, and they ate bread with him in his house; they showed him sympathy and comforted him for all the evil that the LORD had brought upon him; and each of them gave him a piece of money and a gold ring. ¹² The LORD blessed the latter days of Job more than his beginning; and he had fourteen thousand sheep, six thousand camels, a thousand yoke of oxen, and a thousand donkeys. ¹³ He also had seven sons and three daughters. ¹⁴ He named the first Jemimah, the second Keziah, and the third Keren-happuch. ¹⁵ In all the land there were no women so beautiful as Job's daughters; and their father gave them an inheritance along with their brothers. ¹⁶ After this Job lived for one hundred and forty years, and saw his children, and his children's children, four generations. ¹⁷ And Job died, old and full of days.

Mark 10:46-end

⁴⁶ They came to Jericho. As he and his disciples and a large crowd were leaving Jericho, Bartimaeus son of Timaeus, a blind beggar, was sitting by the roadside. ⁴⁷ When he heard that it was Jesus of Nazareth, he began to shout out and say, 'Jesus, Son of David, have mercy on me!' ⁴⁸ Many sternly ordered him to be quiet, but he cried out even more loudly, 'Son of David, have mercy on me!' ⁴⁹ Jesus stood still and said, 'Call him here.' And they called the blind man, saying to him, 'Take heart; get up, he is calling you.' ⁵⁰ So throwing off his cloak, he sprang up and came to Jesus. ⁵¹ Then Jesus said to him, 'What do you want me to do for you?' The blind man said to him, 'My teacher, let me see again.' ⁵² Jesus said to him, 'Go; your faith has made you well.' Immediately he regained his sight and followed him on the way.

All Hallows Eve—Hospitality

We will again be reaching out to our community being light in the darkness and offering hospitality in the form of hot chocolate and treat bags outside church. Please let Helen know if you can help.

All Saints and All Souls - 3 Nov

If you would like the name of a loved one to be remembered and read out during our All Saints and All Souls service on next Sunday, please add their names to the list on the noticeboard by 1 Nov.

Eco Tip: The Refill Store

I took our first batch of blister packs to the refill store at 22 Bond Street (next to Ripples) on Sunday. This was my first time of visiting the store and what a joy it was! They had a multitude of spices that you could weigh and take away in brown bags, cereals, nuts, and baking products, cleaning and laundry products and a range of toiletries. It felt like being a young girl again weighing out the products, and if you have just nipped in and forgotten a container they had a supply you could use. I can not recommend a visit enough if you are in the city centre. By using an organisation like this you can contribute to an ethos of zero waste and a more sustainable future - Sue

Quiz Night

Our next fundraising event will be a Quiz on Friday 22 Nov, 7pm for 7.30pm, teams of up to 8 individuals, £5 per head—see Maurice / Richard for tickets.

Key Messages from the PCC

The PCC met on 16 October and share these key messages:

- We are overwhelmed by the generosity of the congregation in responding to our plea to raise 50% of the total cost of the large hall roof work by the end of October, and are delighted to report that we have exceeded that target. We are now applying for large grants.
- We agreed to hold another ADVENTure event and Carol service on Advent Sunday, 1 December. If you could help with an activity, please let Lucy know. We also agreed to hold our Christingle service before Christmas this year; it will be held on Sunday 22 December at 10am.
- We planned a number of fundraising events for January - April 2025, including a Pudding Evening on Friday 7 February and a Table Top Sale on Saturday 1 March.

If you have any questions, please speak to any member of the PCC.
